April 17th "Anything Goes"

Guest Instructor

Marci Eberhardt

9:30am – noon

TI Community Center Garden Room

$10 members, $12 non-members

Marci has an exciting history of study and practice. She received degrees from:

- The Los Angeles Institute of the Arts - Walt Disney
- California Institute of Interior Design
- Monterey College, California

Marci's range of practice includes owning and operating an Interior Design Studio in California's Wine Country to Sidewalk Art in Sarasota. She has been active in both the Visual Arts and the Performing Arts as a performer and prop artist. Come join the Wednesday Workshop on April 17th and see what Marci has in store for us.

A materials list will be e-mailed to all before the workshop. No e-mail? Call Arlene Kitchin at 360-8065 for details.

Our March Show was our Annual Workshop Show.

You tell me if you think these artists have been having fun!! I couldn't resist including all the winners. (Turn the page!)
