

TIAG Newsletter, June 2016 Happy Summer Painting!

This is not really a newsletter, merely a recognition of our May winners and a couple of announcements

SAVE THIS DATE

On October 21, 2016 we will be doing a new kind of fund raiser to the Art Guild. Nan Colton is the artist in residence at the St Petersburg Museum of Fine Art. She has done extensive research into the lives of 34 different historical figures and performs as them at certain periods in their lives. She writes her own scripts, creates the appropriate period clothing and "becomes" that person for her performance. Following the performance she will conduct a short question and answer period during which she will answer as herself or the person she represents. For us she is going to perform as Georgia O'Keeffe during her time at Taos.

We will be selling tickets to this performance for $5.00 each. This will include free parking as well as light refreshments after the performance. The city of Treasure Island has agreed to allow us to use the Community Center for this fund raiser free of charge. Tickets will be available in September.

Please consider painting some Georgia O'Keeffe type entrants to the October show in conjunction with this fund raiser. We would also like some 5x7 painted donations to be sold as souvenirs. Proceeds will go to the scholarship fund.

We hope that you will enjoy this endeavor. We will be asking for volunteers to help. Ms Colton has other artists in her repertoire and perhaps with the success of this October show we will be able to have her come back next year to perform again.

Remember Patricia McEntire's Summer Homework! Clean your brushes onto a canvas without looking, then bring them to the Wednesday Anything Goes in September to create a masterpiece!

See you in September
